

Announcing a One-Day Conference for School and Community Leaders

Linking Family and School Literacies: The Critical Connection for Student Success

Wednesday, May 28, 2003

9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Radisson Hotel in Cromwell

No registration fee

Featured Presentations

"Connecticut's Changing Demographics and the Impact on Family Literacy"

Dr. Harold L. Hodgkinson

Director of the Center for Demographic Policy at the Institute for Educational Leadership and one of the nation's leading educational demographers

"Making a Difference for All Young Children, Not Just the Lucky Few"

Dr. Victoria Purcell-Gates

Professor in the College of Education at Michigan State University and leading scholar on the influence of culture, class, gender, and SES on literacy development and access to literacy learning in schools

Connecticut Commentators

Dr. Janice M. Gruendel
Co-President and Senior Policy Fellow
Connecticut Voices for Children

David M. Nee
Executive Director
William Caspar Graustein Memorial Fund

Register by May 12, 2003

For program information:

Judy Carson (judy.carson@po.state.ct.us or 860-713-6576; or
Harriet Feldlaufer (harriet.feldlaufer@po.state.ct.us or 860-713-6579)

For registration questions:

EASTCONN Conference Office 860-455-0707

Please complete the following registration information:

Name:

Title:

Organization:

Street Address:

Town:

Zip:

Phone:

Email:

Send completed registrations to EASTCONN Conference Office, Windham Mills Bldg. #1, 3rd floor, 322
Main Street, Willimantic, CT 06226; or fax to 860-456-9407; or email to conferenceoffice@eastconn.org.

You will receive written confirmation and directions by mail if your registration is accepted. You must be preregistered to attend this event.